Warren Tate

vs.
A H. Gossett }

The plaintiff complains of the defendant ~~and~~ H. Gossett whose christian name is unknown and says that heretofore to wit on the 6 day of 1869 he executed his promissory note payable to the plaintiff for one hundred and ninety one dollars and forty four cents negotiable and payable at the Indiana National Bank of Indianapolis with attorneys fees if suit should be instituted upon the same without any relief whatever from valuation or appraisement laws with interest at ten per cent after maturity and waiving presentment for payment protest and notice of protest and non payment of the same a copy of which said note is filed herewith and made a part hereof and for greater certainty marked "Schedule A" which said note is long since due and remains wholly unpaid wherefore plaintiff prays judgment for two hundred and fifty dollars and all other proper relief -
