State of Indiana, Hendricks County

Before me, William R. McClelland, clerk of the Circuit Court within and for said County, on this 26th day of October 1887, came Nancy J. Thompson, who being by me first duly sworn, says on her oath, that she is the widow of Evan Thompson, late of said County, deceased, having been married to him March 23^d 1873, and that after said marriage, she loaned said Evan, divers sums of money, aggregating the sum of forty dollars, ($40.00), for which no note or other evidence in writing was taken, commencing in, or about the month of June A. D. 1874, on the express oral promise of said Evan, that said money should by him, be repaid her, nothing being said about interest thereon, the last of said sums going to make the said aggregate, having been loaned him some time before April 12th 1881. That none of said money has ever been repaid her. ^{For particulars see account marked Exhibit A, filed herewith.}

Said affiant further says that afterwards she loaned said Evan the further sum of $10⁰⁰ for which he executed to her his promissory note hereto attached marked "Exhibit B" by which he promised to pay her ten dollars, twelve months after date thereof, with interest thereon at 8% per annum, which note is due and wholly unpaid.

Affiant further says that no time was ever fixed or set for the repayment of said sum of $40.00, or any of it, and that all of said sum of $40.00 and all of said sum of $10.00 and interest promised in said note, are justly due and unpaid her and that said estate has no setoff, or Counter claim against said sums, or either of them, nor any defence thereto, that she knows of.

Wherefore affiant demands judgment against said estate for said sum of $40.00 and interest thereon at 6% per annum and for said sum of $10⁰⁰ and interest thereon at 8% per annum, and for all proper relief to which she is entitled. The statements herein made by affiant, she verifies by her affidavit.
