of Jeremiah Tuder, decd } January Term 1876

The undersigned Administratrix of said Estate represents to the Court that she holds as a part of the assets of said Estate a note for $290. dated Oct. 21 1869 Executed to the decedent by Samuel M. Tuder the son and one of the heirs of said decedent, on which there are credits endorsed to the amount of $147.80 and she says that it is claimed by said Samuel that there should be a further credit on said note of $100. and she says that believing it to be for the best interests of said Estate and to prevent litigation she compounded and compromised said claim with said Samuel by agreeing to allow a credit of one half of the same being $50. And she further says that she is charged on the inventory with interest on said note: that she knows it was not the custom of said decedent to charge his children with interest and was not his intention to charge interest on said note, and she asks that she may be allowed to credit said note with the amount of interest computed on same at time of making inventory, and that her compounding of said claim of credit aforesaid be approved by the Court.
