In the Hendrick Circuit Court, March Term 1844,

James O. Emmons, by his next friend James M. Emmons.

William Trotter administrator of the estate of James Trotter.

The above

who sues by his

named Plaintiff James O. Emmons complains of the Defendant and says that said estate is indebted to him in the sum of one hundred and twenty five dollars on accounts and claims as follows to wit; for one steer fifty dollars on one steer belonging to the Plaintiff and which was sold by the decedent James Trotter at the request of and permission of said Plff and the proceeds of said sale amounting to fifty dollars, the said decedent appropriated to his own use and benefit and never accounted to Plff therefore said sale and appropriation being made on 1st day of November 1844, And Plff further alleges that on the 1st day of April 1845 - the said decedent - being in possession of another steer belonging to said Plff, did on that date and at the request of and by the permission of the Plff, sell said steer for the sum of fifty dollars, which the said decedent - appropriated to his own use and benefit and never accounted to Plff therefor, both of which claims are now due and wholly unpaid wherefore he demands payment of said claims with interest from the times of said sale in all amounting to one hundred and fifty dollars.

The said Administrator further specifically reports to the Court that all of the heirs of said decedent are of age, and that at the time of his death the personal property of said decedent lacked about $3300, of being sufficient to pay the the indebtedness, that by agreement the heirs joined in and sold 23 acres of said decedent's land to James M. Lister for $920, And that by agreement the heirs partitioned the residue of said decedent's land among themselves each agreeing to contribute his proportionate part of the unpaid indebtedness, And that at various times the said heirs have contributed and paid into said Administrator about the sum $2332, which account was applied on the indebtedness, And that he has fully settled said estate as shown by this report, wherefore he asks to be fully and finally discharged from said trust.
