well I suppose it is the best that could be done under the circumstances - at least I am willing to let it go so - you will please write & let me know how I must proceed - you spoke of my signing a quit claim deed but how will that be effected when I am here -

I remain, &c,

Dear Sir,

I recd yours of 20th ult stating that you had collected eight dollars on the estate. in reply I would say that if you could procure a check on some good bank on which there is but little discount and send it to me it would be better than sending the money by mail as our mails are not very regular.

yours respectfully Emily Wade.

Health tolerable good no sign of any consequences whatever yet

The young of the I do not know you know it well & which you state you had never seen before. I am sure - he wants me to know more than he thought he found. I would see better my interest included - I am sure I would rather it could be sold in that way - I if you please you may proceed in the way you speak of here -
