The State of Indiana }
Henriks County }

In the matter of the Guardianship of Milton P. White Minor,

The undersigned who was appointed in vacation as Guardian of said minor (who is his own child) respectfully states to the Court that his application for such appointment was made under a misapprehension of the law and by mistake he over estimated the amount of personal property of said minor which he now understands is very small if it runs any at all, wherefore he asks the Court that his letters issued by said Clerk may be revoked and not confirmed and that no further proceedings be had in the Guardianship

October Term 1872

In the Matter of Guardianship of Milton P. White, minor

Mary Hunt Grandmother <sup>And Cyrus Hunt for</sup> of Milton P. White, minor, respectfully shows the Court, that the Clerk of said Court, in vacation, on the 7th day of September 1872, issued Letters of Guardianship of said minor's person and property, to James A. White and she further shows the Court that said White has been and is guilty of fraudulent conduct and neglect of his duties in said guardianship in this

1st That he has in his hand a large Amount of personal property, about 3000 $, belonging to his ward, which he fails and refuses to account for or report in his Inventory of the Estate of said minor

2<sup>d</sup> That he makes exorbitant and unreasonable charges for improvements to his wards Real Estate

3<sup>d</sup> That he occupies and uses his wards

Real Estate and does not account for its fair rental value

And said Mary Hunt prays the Court to revoke the Letters of Guardianship issued as aforesaid to said James & White and remove them from said Trust.

Guardianship of Milton P. White,

Your petitioner, Benjamin F. Short, represents and shews to the Court that he is Guardian of Milton P. White, who is now of the age of about nineteen years. That his ward is in need of a higher education and is desirous of obtaining the same, and is now attending the ~~Central~~ ~~Public School at Claytown Indiana~~ ~~Central College of Nashville Indiana~~, that there is now in the hands of his Guardian in money loaned at interest about ten to twelve hundred dollars, and about the same amount of money due said Ward which is held by Diego M. West L trustee, and said Ward owns about one hundred acres of valuable land.

That it will require a considerable sum of money to board, clothe and pay tuition and incidental expenses of said ward, and the Guardian asks that the Court will make an order authorizing him to pay all reasonable expenses of the Board Tuition, Clothing and incidental expenses of his ward whilst attending school. until the further order of the Court in the premises, the amount not to exceed four hundred dollars per year.
