James Wood's Estate

Report of Final Settlement

Filed in open court May
22. 1857

John Brown clerk

State of Indiana, In the Court of Common Pleas of said Hendricks County & County, May Term 1857.

The undersigned administrator of the estate of James Wood deceased, would report to said Court, that he is chargeable as appears from his last report made at the November term of this Court 1855 with the sum of $ 84.07 to which said sum, add the sum of 78.80 the amount advanced to said administrator by Eliza Jane Wood the widow of said decessed, in order to save the real estate from sale, for the payment of the debts against said estate - And it makes the sum of $162.87

Said administrator claims the further credits following Credits, for sums paid out by him, on the debts due, and demands outstanding against said estate, and expenses of administration, to wit:

Paid William Faulkner as per receipt No. 15	$ 109.50
" John G. Kelly " " " " 16	24.59
" John Irons Clerk for " " " " 17	22.78
" S. L. Hudley " " " " 18	6.00

Making the total amt of Credits $162.87 which covers the whole amount with which said administrator stands charged, and finally closes the business of said estate, the administrator not charging anything whatever for his services herein as such guardian administrator, wherefore said administrator prays the Court approve and confirm his acts and doings herein, and discharge him from any further duties as such administrator Lorenzo V. Woods

The above named Lorenzo A. Woods being by duly sworn in open Court, upon his oath says that the foregoing report contains a full and true account of the business of said estate - Lorenzo V. Woods
