Petition to sell personal

Filed May 12, 1874
L. W. Linkins
Clerk

State of Indiana
Hendricks County

To the Hon Livingston
Howland, Judge of the Hendricks Circuit Court

The undersigned admr. of the estate of John Moody decd, represents that there are only two articles with which he is chargeable on the inventory in said estate which are to be sold, and appraised at thirteen dollars, that the expenses of advertising and selling said articles would be about equal to the amount he could realize for the same.

He therefore asks an order of this Court authorizing him to sell said property at private sale without notice.
