Believing the interest and convenience, of both guardian and wards, will be better subserved by their living near together, I have resigned my guardianship and <sup>paid</sup> the money over to the clerk of the court.

The amount so paid over is $724.30. Now you can have ~~any~~ one, whom you may think proper appointed in the county in which you live. He can give bond and qualify as the law directs then by sending his bond properly authenticated together with a receipt for the money he can draw it here.

○ We have quite a snow, and more is now falling. All well.

Respectfully thy friend
Jesse Morrey

P. S. If the money is not applied for in a reasonable time, the Court will appoint some one here to take charge of it.
