Souvenir

1906

In cities and in villages, in country
Districts scattered wide,
Above the schoolhouse door it floats—
A thing of beauty and of pride;
The poorest child, the richest heir—
'Tis theirs in common to adore,
For 'tis their flag that proudly floats
The flag above the schoolhouse door.

The Close School

"The time has come to say farewell!
For now our term is through;
To sound our present school days' knell
And bid you all adieu."

"Farewell!—a word that stirs our hearts,
That moves our feelings strong,
That sadness frequently imparts,
And makes us linger long."

"For months together we have met
And coned our lessons o'er,
And done our best to know and get
A part of Learning's store."

"Thro' all the days I've labored hard,
And often during night;
Your progress was my sole regard,
Your well fare my delight."

"And oh! my pupils, I have tried
To do the best I could;
I've oped the book of knowledge wide,
And hope you've understood."

"Get wisdom", said the Sage of old,
Who spake in sayings wise;
More precious she than gems or gold,
Or any other prize

"And richer far than greatest king,
Or treasures of the mine,
Are they who drink from out her spring,
Or worship at her shrine."

"With all your getting therefore get
An education true;
'Twill be a crown with jewels set,
A pow'r to each of you."

"And thanks for all your favors shown,
For cheer, which toil beguiles;
For roses in my path-way strewn,
For all your love and smiles."

"And at the parting of the ways,
We at this moment stand,
And soon we'll close our dear school days,
And take each other's hand."

"Most fondly do I wish you well,
And hope you each may be
An ornament where e'er you dwell.
And from all vices free"

"And now the swift, descending sun
Proclaims the time is here;
So good-by each and ev'ry one.
Farewell, my pupils, dear."

In Memory of days spent together in the school room this token is presented with the compliments of
YOUR TEACHER.
