The Child the Hope of the Race

THERE is nothing in all the world so important as children, nothing so interesting, If you ever wish to go in for some philanthropy, if you ever wish to be one of any real use in the world, do something for children. If you ever yearn to be truly wise, study children. We can dress the sore, bandage the wounded, imprison the criminal, heal the sick and bury the dead, but there is always a chance that we can save a child. If the great army of philanthropists ever exterminate sin and pestilence, even work out our race's salvation, it will be because a little child has led them.
