The Foot Path to Peace

To be glad of life, because it gives you a chance to live and to work and to play and to look up at the stars; to be satisfied with your possessions, but not contented with yourself until you have made the best of them; to despise nothing in the world except falsehood and meanness, and to fear nothing except cowardice; to be governed by your admirations rather than by your disgusts; to covet nothing that is your neighbor's except gentleness of manner; to think seldom of your enemies, often of your friends and every day of Christ; and to spend as much time as you can with the body and with the spirit, in God's out-of-doors—these are little guideposts on the foot-path of of peace.
