CELEBRATE TWENTY-FIFTH
WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

7-25-19 ———

Some fifty guests gathered at the home of Rev. Geo. A. Jones in Cleveland avenue last Friday evening in honor of the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary of Rev. and Mrs. Jones.

The beautiful custom of a second wedding on this date was observed, Rev. Kindred of Chicago and Rev. H. P. Ivey of the local M. E. church conducting the service.

Music and a pleasant social time followed the ceremony, and dainty refreshments were served. Rev. and Mrs. Jones received many beautiful gifts of silver, attended by the very best wishes of their friends.

Rev. Jones has been for several years the pastor of the Christian church here, his activities being in large part responsible for the growth of the congregation and the erection of the new church building in Central avenue. His resignation, effective on September 1, is a matter of deep regret to his parishioners.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. Mary Starr of Cincinnati, Mrs. Jones' mother; Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Johnson of Lowell, and Rev. Kindred of Chicago.

Whiting Couple Treat Their Friends to An Unexpected Surprise.

Miss Kathryn Hartnett and Mr. James Knight, two of Whiting's best known young people, treated their friends to a genuine surprise last Saturday by slipping away to Parkersburg, W. Va., and getting married. Instead of returning to Whiting after the wedding ceremony the young couple added a further tinge of romance to the episode by deciding to remain permanently in that city, where the groom formerly resided and is well connected and where he now expects to set his bride up in a home of their own making.

The elopers succeeded in keeping their friends in ignorance of their whereabouts until Monday, when it was learned that they had bought tickets at South Chicago for Parkersburg. Mr. John Hartnett, a brother of the bride, immediately started for that city and upon his arrival there Tuesday afternoon had no difficulty in locating his sister and her husband at the home of the latter's uncle. Mr. Hartnett satisfied himself they were contented in their new environments, and returned to Whiting.

Miss Hartnett was a leader in the younger element of Whiting's social life and a general favorite in the town. Her father is Mr. Maurice Hartnett, of No. 4, Ohio avenue. The family is well known, and most estimable, having resided in Whiting for about nine years. The SUN joins the many friends in offering to Mr. and Mrs. Knight hearty wishes for a happy voyage through life's journey.

SURPRISED THEIR FRIENDS.

Those who were about the streets last Sunday afternoon might have seen Mr. Chas. A. Moore, debonair and gay, taking a street car for Hammond. Had they stopped to think they might have concluded that a trip to Hammond would not of itself have given him so happy an expression. The secret of his happiness was disclosed when Miss Alice Slocum, blushing and beautiful, stepped upon the next car for Hammond. They had outwitted their friends and their carefully planned secret was their own, and arriving in Hammond they hastened to the minister's home where they were soon proclaimed man and wife. Returning to Whiting they went to their respective homes but the secret could not be kept. The Hammond papers had learned the news and the announcement of the wedding appeared in the evening editions Monday. The information soon passed among friends and congratulations began to pour in. Mr. Moore is the grandson of our respected fellow townsman, Mr. Chas. Halsey and came from Cleveland a few months ago and is an employe of Standard Oil Co. at the acid works where he enjoys a trusted position. The bride is one of our well known and highly esteemed teachers, a niece of Mr. Goldsmith, Supt. of teams at the Standard. The happy couple are at home to their friends at Mr. Goldsmith's handsome residence on Sheridan ave., where they will make their home.

A pretty home wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Waltzer, on New York avenue, Wednesday of this week, the contracting parties being Miss Erma D. Waltzer, of this city, and Mr. Wm. Kennedy, of Chicago. Rev. Livingston, of the East Chicago, M. E. church, performing the ceremony. Miss Violet Wheaton was maid of honor, and Carl P. Waltzer attended the groom. The bride's gown was of white mousseline de soie, over white taffeta trimmed with duchess lace. A sumptuous supper was served by the bride's mother after the wedding.

MARRIAGE AT VALPARAISO.

Marriage of Dr. George R. Jones and Katharine A. Stoddard.

The Valparaiso Messenger of Tuesday evening contained the following marriage notice: 12/27/1902

"Dr. George Richard Jones and Miss Katharine A. Stoddard were quietly married this afternoon at one o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Stutor on North Franklin street. The ceremony was performed by Elder J. H. O. Smith and was witnessed by only the relatives and a few intimate friends of the contracting parties. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Jones of Whiting, for many years residents of Valparaiso. The bride is a daughter of ex-Sheriff Heber Stoddard. The bridal couple left at 1:18 for Chicago and from there will go to Whiting, where they will spend several days with Dr. Jones' parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Jones, and on their return will reside in rooms in the Seib block which have already been handsomely fitted up by the groom. Both are most estimable young people and begin their new life with the brightest of surroundings. The bride has been for several years a teacher in the city schools, and the groom has been practicing dentistry for the past five years and enjoys a lucrative business."

A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Schmittle on Harrison avenue on Christmas eve, the contracting parties being Miss Lizzie Schmittle and Mr. Charles Allen, of Chicago. Miss Dora Hibbard attended the bride while Mr. Gust Schmittle acted as best man. Miss Schmittle is well known in Robertsdale and Whiting and has many friends who extend their best wishes for her future happiness. 12-27-1902

Wellknown Couple Married

Whiting people are delighted to hear of the wedding of Miss Marguerite Fifield and Dr. C. G. Mackey, two of Whiting's most popular young people. Dr. Mackey has not been here very long, but he has kept things moving in the right direction and going most of the time since his coming, while Miss Fifield is one of the young ladies of Whiting in whom the people take most particular pride for her splendid ways and charming manner.

The marriage took place at St. Paul's church at Hammond, Rev. Hawthorne performing the ceremony.

Those who were present at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Fifield, parents of the bride; Mrs. Horace Mackey of South Bend, the groom's mother; Oren Mackey of Whiting, the groom's brother; Miss Bessie Naef; Mrs. A. J. Judson; and Mrs. A. J. Burroughs of Joliet, Ill.

A wedding breakfast was served at the Hammond Country club. The decorations were exquisite, being all pink and white, with floral accompaniments of sweet peas, pink peonies and ferns.

Mr. and Mrs. Mackey left for a short trip to Lake Maxinkuckee, Culver, Kentucky. When they return they will remain for a time with the bride's parents on Oliver street, but later will reside at 321 Cleveland avenue.

The bride was a former teacher in the junior high school, beloved of all her pupils, and is one of the leading members of the Tri Kappa sorority. She is a graduate of Wilson College of Chambersburg, Pa.

The groom is a young physician of profession, and of a most pleasing personality.

LIEUT. ROY TILTON

A very simple wedding ceremony united Miss Edytha Hollett and Lieut. Roy Tilton at the Congregational church Wednesday noon. The bride was very prettily dressed in a turquoise blue silk suit, which was quite effective beside the khaki uniform of the groom.

A beautiful organ prelude by Mrs. Jessie Curtis Smith, two vocal selections by Miss Ruth Tilton, sister of the groom, and the wedding march, preceded the brief ceremony. The couple were unattended, and the entire affair was conducted in a pleasingly unpretentious manner. Rev. Chas. E. Trueblood read the ceremony and the couple left at once for a short trip before returning to Chillicothe, Ohio, where Lieut. Tilton is stationed.

Among the out-of-town people who came to wish them well were Miss May Gavin of Chicago; Mrs. Krily of Gas City, Ind.; Mrs. Leachman of Danville, Ill., sisters of the bride; Charles Hollett, a brother, and his wife, of Hammond; Mrs. McCouch and Miss Wilson of Chicago; and Miss Margaret Leachman of Danville, niece of the bride.

MISS JESSIE DUGGAN

WEDS CORP. W. F. KYLE

Another soldier wedding of more than usual interest took place in Whiting last Friday when Miss Jessie Duggan was united in marriage to Corporal William F. Kyle at the Sacred Heart parsonage, Rev Wm. C. Miller officiating.

Several months ago the wedding was set, and Mr. Kyle was able to secure a five days furlough from Camp Taylor for the event.

The bride is one of the brilliant and popular young ladies of Whiting, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Duggan of Pennsylvania avenue. She has been assistant music supervisor in the public schools and has figured in many of the musical events of the city, her splendid voice and training winning plaudits on all sides. She is a member of the Tri Kappa sorority, and has always been foremost in the splendid doings of that charitable and helpful society.

The groom is one of the popular members of the Owls club, prominent in most of their doings, and was, before his enlistment, employed in the offices of the Inland Steel Co. at Indiana Harbor.

Mr. and Mrs Kyle left after the ceremony for Duthonsville, Pa., where Mr. Kyle's parents reside, and a brief visit with them; the groom is obliged to report for duty at

Mrs. Kyle will remain with her parents temporarily.

POPULAR COUPLE

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT

Albert H. Scholz, who has enlisted in the service and leaves today, Friday, for camp, was announced as the fiance of Miss Marguerite Hemenway at a dinner party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Johnson in Central avenue Tuesday evening.

Miss Hemenway is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hemenway of Beverly Hills, Chicago, and has been one of our popular school teachers for the past three years.

Albert is the son of Paul A. Scholz, formerly of Whiting, but lately of LaPorte. He has been a trusted and progressive employe of the First National Bank of this city for the past six years, and is also secretary of the Owls club. He possesses great enthusiasm, and is a steady and hard worker. If he serves Uncle Sam as he used to root for the basket ball team Pershing will be mighty glad to see him coming to France.

WEDS PASTOR

6-28-1918

Whiting friends of Miss Lydia Fuessle will be interested in hearing of her marriage Tuesday evening to Rev. Andrew Henning. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Fuessle, the father of the bride, in the Sheffield avenue Evangelical church, of which he is now the pastor. The bridal couple were attended by Miss Elona Haman, and Lieut. Alfred Fuessle.

Miss Fuessle has been the supervisor of the Kindergarten for several years, and before her service in this capacity, her parents made their home here, while Rev. Fuessle held the pastorate of the Evangelical church of Whiting.

Rev. Henning, while attending college at Naperville, has become well acquainted with Whiting people on his frequent visits here.

Wednesday morning the young couple left for Iowa, where Rev. Henning has been called to a pastorate.
