

Caleb Smith all my real estate after the death of their mother Abigail Smith to be equally divided between the said parties reserving to each their present possessions to have and to hold and dispose of the said premises as they or either of them may hereafter deem most advantageous. 4th I will and bequeath unto my daughter Melissa Smith all my household and kitchen furniture after the death of her mother, Abigail Smith to have and to hold the same as her own property. 5th After the death of my wife Abigail Smith, my will is that all my personal property (not herein particularly named) be sold and the amount thereof equally divided between all my lawful heirs.

6th; and last, I will this my mortal body to be buried at the discretion of Jarvis Smith and Caleb Smith whom I appoint sole Executors of this my last will and testament hereby revoking all former wills by me made, in witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal, this 25th day of August, and in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty one, and in the presence of who are subscribing witnesses.

Humphrey Smith (Seal)
John Murray, Alexander Wallace
Thomas Murray

The State of Indiana
Orange County, Ind. Be it remembered that on the 19th day of August 1839, Jarvis Smith, Caleb Smith, personally came before me Tho. V. Thornton, Clerk of the Probate Court of the County of Orange, and proved the execution of the last will and testament of Humphrey Smith, late of said County deceased, according to law, by the oath of Alexander Wallace and John Murray, two of the subscribing witnesses thereto.
Test. Tho. V. Thornton Clerk.

William Cunningham's Will.

July the 14th 1833.

In the name of God, Amen! I William Cunningham, of Orange County, and State of Indiana, being weak in body, but of sound and perfect mind and memory or you may say thus, considering the uncertainty of this mortal life, and being of sound for this of death being uncertain &c. blessed be Almighty God, for the same I William Cunningham do make and publish this my last will and testament in manner and form following, that is to say; first, I give and bequeath to my son-in-law, John Buchanan and Elizabeth Buchanan seventeen Dollars in good trade, also my joiner's and Carpenter's tools to him and his son William Alexander Buchanan. I also, give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Deborah Cunningham, my own home farm and all the personal property, belonging to me to be divided with the land equal at my death, to remain theirs until the death of my wife Deborah Cunningham; then the personal property belonging to my wife Deborah Cunningham to be divided between my daughters Anna Cunningham and my daughter Elizabeth Buchanan, and the land to remain my daughters Anna I also give and bequeath to my wife Deborah Cunningham and my daughter Anna and my daughter Elizabeth Buchanan, a part of legacy, if obtained by law, remaining in the hands of William Childs and Boon Ingle, living in the State of Kentucky, if obtained, to be equally divided between them above named. I hereby appoint sole executrix of this my last will and testament, ^{2 months wife D. Cunningham} hereby revoking all former wills by me made. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the day and date above named in the year 1833.

103

Signed, sealed published and declared by the above named to be his last will and testament in the presence of us who have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses in the presence of the testator.

Attest: Lewis Keedy
Caleb Smith
Jefferson Dufford

William Cunningham
Test. Tho. V. Thornton clerk

Be it remembered that on the 1th day of Oct. 1839 the within will was filed in my office by the Ex^r therein named & proved by the Oaths of Lewis Keedy and Caleb Smith two of the subscribing witnesses thereto.

Jane Trimble's Will.

In the name of God Amen, I Jane Trimble of the County of Orange, State of Indiana, being of sound mind and memory, thanks be to God! but being frail in body and knowing the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death and wishing to dispose of those worldly blessings which it has pleased divine Providence to bless me with do make and ordain this my last will and testament, revoking all other and former wills and codicils; and I do hereby give and bequeath my worldly estate in the following manner. First, it is my desire that my executors hereinafter named shall pay all my just debts and funeral expenses. Second I give and bequeath to my daughter Mary Trimble, one bed and bedding. Third, I give and bequeath to my daughter Margaret Trimble, one bed and bedding. Fourth I give and bequeath to my daughter Elizabeth Trimble, one bed and bedding. Fifth, I give and bequeath to my daughter Sarah Martin, wife of Nathan Martin the sum of one dollar only. Sixth, I give and bequeath to my daughters Margaret Trimble and Elizabeth Trimble all articles of pot metal, which I may have at my death; and. Lastly, I give and bequeath to my two sons Thomas Trimble and George Trimble all my other estate, real, personal, and mixed of whatever character, whether arising from personal exertions or from any interest in the estate of my late husband George Trimble