George Featherkile's Will.

In the name of God - Amen! - I George Featherkile of the County of Orange and State of Virginia, being sound body, full of sound mind and memory - blessed be Almighty God for the same - do make and publish this my last will and testament, in presence and form following (to-wit): First, I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife, Polly Featherkile, all my real estate (to-wit) and that, my message on her separate estate, lying and being in the said County of Orange, being the farms on which I now reside, containing one hundred and sixty acres, together with all my freehold estate whenever, the whole to her, the said Polly Featherkile, during her natural life; and after her decease to be equally divided between my children, (to-wit) the said daughter, Annas Johnson, one fourth part thereof; the said daughter, Polly Tyler, one fourth part thereof; the said son, George Featherkile, one fourth part thereof; and the said son, Adams Featherkile, one fourth part thereof. And lastly, as to all my personal estate, good and chattel, of what kind and nature soever, I give and bequeath the same to my said wife, Polly Featherkile, whom I hereby appoint, and in case she should die and the testament, hereby containing all my former wills by me made.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the twenty first day of July 1821, in the presence of our Sons, one thousand eight hundred and thirty five.
Signed, sealed and published George Featherkile by the above named, George Featherkile in his last will and testament in the presence of us, Edwards Mason, John S. Lewis, Annas Hostetter

I George Featherkile, of the County of Orange and State of Virginia, do make and publish this Codicil to the said my last will and testament as follows, to-wit: In addition to my former bequests, I give and bequeath to my beloved daughter, Polly Tyler, much the less her and assigns for ever, the said daughter's exact quarter of seventeen hundred and eighty six, in townships three north of Orange one east, in the district of lands sold at Jeffersonville, together with the hereditaments and appurtenances thereof, unto the said Polly Tyler her heirs and assigns forever, and as the bequests to be made hereinafter as above directed.
In witness whereof I have hereunto subscribed my Record of Wills.

Abraham Osborn's Will

Know all men by these presents that I, Abraham Osborn, of the County of Orange, Indiana, considering the uncertainty of human life and being desirous to make a sound and perfect mind necessary do make and publish this my last will and testament in manner and substance following (viz) First, I will and desire that all my just debts be first paid out of any moneys first coming into the hands of my Executors, hereinafter appointed and any and all moneys belonging to my said Estate.

Second, I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Martha Osborn, the east half of the north west quarter of Section No. (29) Township 11 North, Range 10 East, and moneys on or near and also that she be allowed by my said Executors owners of the South west quarter of Section 10 North and moneys and the all said moneys and rights, provided and appointed thereunto belonging to her use, person and occupy the same during her natural life; and
