

of this my last will and testament, requesting that they may see the same, and I hereby revoke and make void all other wills and testaments by me made and do publish and declare this to be my last will and testament. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 6th day of December in the year of our Lord 1822. Published pronounced and and delivered by the said Joseph Hollowell to be his last will and testament in presence

John Pinnick
James Dishon
Alexander Morris

Joseph Hollowell

Be it remembered that heretofore, to wit on the 21st day of April in the year of our Lord 1823 the last will and testament of Peter Briner was produced to me Wm Hoggate and proven by the oaths of John Duncan and Benjamin Busick two of the subscribing witnesses thereto, and was admitted to be recorded, which will reads in the following manner and words, viz. In the name of God amen. I Peter Briner Sen. of the County of Orange State of Indiana, being of sound and perfect mind, and memory, blessed be God, do, this 23rd of January in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and twenty three, make and publish this my last will and testament, in manner following, that is to say. First I give to my wife Catharine Briner, all, and singular, the moveable property which I do possess so long as she may live, after which time, the same or the balance of, is to be sold and divided between my daughters Elizabeth Robbins and Catharine Walker, nevertheless if they can divide with on the sale of the property, they may do so with the exception of my large Retax which I give to my son George Briner, also I bequeath to my wife Catharine Briner fifty dollars of my money that is due to me in Pennsylvania when the same is obtained: I next give to my son John Briner one dollar, and to my son Andrew Briner one dollar, to my daughter Mary Cook one dollar, and the balance of my money in Pennsylvania as follows, first to my son George Briner sixty dollars, and to my daughter Catharine Walker forty dollars, and to my son Peter Briner ten dollars and the balance to be divided equally, if any, between Peter Briner George Briner Elizabeth Robbins & Catharine Walker, and I hereby make and ordain my worthy friend Jacob Moulder executor to this my last will and testament, in witness whereof I the said Peter Briner Sen. have to this my last will and testament set my hand and seal the day and year above written

Peter Briners
Will

Peter Briner

Signed sealed published and declared by the said Peter Briner Sen. the testator as his last will and testament in the presence of us who were present at the time of signing and sealing thus

John Duncan
Benjamin Busick

Be it remembered that heretofore, to wit, on the 21st day of April in the year of our Lord 1823 the last will and testament of John Humber was produced to the Probate Court and proven by the oaths of Joseph Esthon and Wm Rhodes two of the subscribing witnesses thereto, and was ordered to be recorded, which will reads in the following manner and words, viz. In the name of God amen I John Humber of Orange County and State of Indiana, being weak of body but of sound and perfect memory, considering the uncertainty of this mortal life, blessed be Almighty God for the same, do make and publish this my last will and testament, in manner and form following, First I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Catharine Humber one mare and Dearborn waggan, six head of cattle seven head of hogs, all the household and kitchen furniture ex. 3388 North East quarter of Section 32 Town ship 19 N. Range 6.

John Humber's
Will

in a tract appropriated by an act approved for Military bounties in the Territory of Miss-2 I will that my hatting tools and furs and hats be sold to pay all my just debts. 3rd I will that all the dower coming from her fathers estate to my wife Catharine. 4 I give and bequeath with the same to my said beloved wife Catharine Hemler, to have and to hold during her widowhood or life, then to be equally divided between all my living children. I do hereby appoint Ephraim Doan and Catharine Hemler, my wife to be my sole executor and executrix of this my last will and testament hereby revoking all former wills by me made. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 16th day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty three.

John Hemler

Signed sealed published and declared by the above John Hemler to be my last will and testament in the presence of ~~us~~, who have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses in the presence of the tes-tators

- Ebenezer Doan
- Joseph Athon
- William Rhodes

Be it remembered that heretofore, to wit, on the 1. day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty three, the last will and testament of Robert Clark was produced to me William Hoggatt. C. O. C. C. and proven by the oaths of James Curry and Thomas Copelin the two subscribing witnesses thereto, and was ordered by the Probate Court on the 21. of July 1823 that the said will be recorded, and Presly Allgood appointed executor with the will annexed, which will reads in the following manner and words, viz.

State of Indiana Orange County August 28. 1823. This day Robert Clark being in sound mind, he doth will and bequeath all his estate real and personal to his wife Alley Clark her natural life time to her support, and also the said Robert Clark doth will and bequeath one dollar to Presly Allgood and also doth will and bequeath one dollar to Jesse Hutchins and also he doth will and bequeath one dollar to Benjamin Melone), and also doth will and bequeath one dollar to Elizabeth Allgood, and also doth will and bequeath one dollar to Lydia Hutchins, and after the death of my wife Alley Clark to be an equal divide between my grand children, namely, Presly Allgood's children and Jesse Hutchins children, for which I do hereby certify this to be my last will and testament, for which I hereunto set my hand and affix my seal

Robert Clark

- James Curry
- Thomas Copelin

Be it remembered that heretofore, to wit, on the 11th day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty three, the last will and testament of Cornelius Rayborn was produced to me, William Hoggatt C. O. C. C. and proven by the oaths of Lewis Bepan and Henry B. Prentiss the subscribing witnesses thereto, and was admitted to be recorded, which will reads in the following manner and words, viz. "State of Indiana Orange County" In the name of God, Amen.

Cornelius Rayborn (or Nelly Rayborn sometimes called) considering the uncertainty of this mortal life, and being of sound and perfect mind and memory, blessed be Almighty God for the same, do make and publish this my last will and testament, in manner and form following (that is to say) First I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Bethilda (after my just debts being first paid) all my effects, either personal or real during her life-time, after which I give and devise to my two sons, Andrew and James, their heirs and assigns, all that my meadow or tract, situated, lying &

Robert Clark's
 Will

Cornelius Rayborn's
 Will