

following viz: After all my just and lawful debts are paid I will and bequeath unto my true and loving wife Elizabeth Duncan all my estate both real and personal to use in any way she may deem most expedient to render herself easy and comfortable during her natural life, and after death, my will is that the residue be disposed of as follows. 1st To Luina, Vest ninety three dollars. 2^d To Sarah Kearby sixty dollars. 3^d To Jane, Boon, seventy dollars. 4th The remainder or residue, if any to be equally divided amongst all my lawful heirs except Polly Holmes, who has heretofore as I consider received a full share, and Fleming St. Duncan who is to receive in addition to a tract of land heretofore deeded to him by me so as to make the courses and distances of said deeded tract of land and addition thereto run of follows viz: beginning at the North East corner of the quarter section of land on which I now live, and running west with said quarter section line sixty eight poles, thence south varying so as to run parallel with the original section line to the southern boundary line of said quarter section, thence east with the quarter section line sixty eight poles; thence direct to the beginning: lastly I will my immortal soul to God who gave it and my mortal body to be buried at the discretion of George Duncan and Fleming St. Duncan, whom I appoint soul Executors of this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me made. In witness whereof the said George Duncan Senr. hath signed and acknowledged the foregoing to be his last will and testament this 26th of June 1832.

And in the presence of Alexander Wallace
 George Duncan
 George Duncan
 George Duncan

George Duncan (Seal)
 The State of Indiana, Orange County, Sec. 13. It is hereby certified that on the 23^d day of March 1839 Fleming St. Duncan one of the executors named within produced to me a copy of the will of George Duncan Senr. and proved the same according to law by the oath of George Duncan Senr. one of the subscribing witnesses thereto. This I certify.
 The V. C. H. Clerk

Wumphrey Smith's Will.

In the Name of God Amen! I, Wumphrey Smith, of Orange County and State of Indiana, being weak in body, but of a sound and perfect mind, memory, and understanding, blessed be Almighty God for the same, do make and publish this, my last will and testament in manner and form following viz:
 1st After all my just and lawful debts are paid, I will and bequeath unto my true and loving wife, Abigail Smith during her natural life all my personal property together with the possession and occupancy of the plantation on which we now reside subject to such arrangements as she may heretofore think most advisable to make with her two sons Jarvis and Caleb Smith.
 2^d I will and bequeath unto my son Allen Smith all my blacksmith tools, to have and to hold the same as his own property.
 3^d I will and bequeath unto my two sons Jarvis and

Caleb Smith all my real estate after the death of their mother Abigail Smith to be equally divided between the said parties reserving to each their present possessions to have and to hold and dispose of the said premises as they or either of them may hereafter deem most advantageous. 4th I will and bequeath unto my daughter Melissa Smith all my household and kitchen furniture after the death of her mother, Abigail Smith to have and to hold the same as her own property. 5th After the death of my wife Abigail Smith, my will is that all my personal property (not herein particularly named) be sold and the amount thereof equally divided between all my lawful heirs.

6th; and last, I will this my mortal body to be buried at the discretion of Jarvis Smith and Caleb Smith whom I appoint sole Executors of this my last will and testament hereby revoking all former wills by me made, in witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal, this 25th day of August, and in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty one, and in the presence of who are subscribing witnesses.

Humphrey Smith (Seal)
John Murray, Alexander Wallace
Thomas Murray

The State of Indiana
Orange County, Ind. Be it remembered that on the 19th day of August 1839, Jarvis Smith, Caleb Smith, personally came before me Tho. V. Thornton, Clerk of the Probate Court of the County of Orange, and proved the execution of the last will and testament of Humphrey Smith, late of said County deceased, according to law, by the oath of Alexander Wallace and John Murray, two of the subscribing witnesses thereto.

Test. Tho. V. Thornton Clerk.

William Cunningham's Will.

July the 14th 1833.

In the name of God, Amen! I William Cunningham, of Orange County, and State of Indiana, being weak in body, but of sound and perfect mind and memory or you may say thus, considering the uncertainty of this mortal life, and being of sound for this of death being uncertain &c. blessed be Almighty God, for the same I William Cunningham do make and publish this my last will and testament in manner and form following, that is to say; first, I give and bequeath to my son-in-law, John Buchanan and Elizabeth Buchanan seventeen Dollars in good trade, also my joiner's and Carpenter's tools to him and his son William Alexander Buchanan. I also, give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Deborah Cunningham, my own home farm and all the personal