Ischabod Boswell's Will.

I, Ischabod Boswell, of the County of Orange, and in the State of Indiana, do make and publish this my last will and testament, hereby revoking and making void all former wills by me, at any time heretofore. I wish I direct that my body be decently interred and that my funeral be conducted in a manner corresponding with my estate and situation in life; and as to such worldly estate as it has pleased God to intrust me with, I dispose of the same in the following manner, to wit:

I direct first, that all my just debts and funeral expended be paid, as soon after my decease as possible, out of the first moneys that shall come to the hands of my Executor, from any portion of my estate, real or personal; and for the purpose of paying my just debts, my will and desire is that the one half of the corn that I raised the present year and the rent that I am to have from Demary Sattlock, to be sold at public auction, also one leg chain, one plough one pair of draw chains and hames, and 1 grind stone also, I wish my Executor to sell the north west fourth of the north west quarter of Section No. Two, in Township No.
One, South of of Range No. One East, containing forty acres and ninety three hundredths; All the aforesaid articles to be sold on a six months credit. And if it should be sufficiently discovered that the amount of sale should not be sufficient pay all my debts, my will and desire is
