Note:

Company I, of the Seventy-first Regiment, was mustered in at Terre Haute August 18, 1862, as an infantry organization. After several battles in which many were killed or captured the prisoners were paroled and returned to Indianapolis to refit for service. About August 1863 it was changed to a cavalry organization.

Thus it can be shown as "Co. I, 71st Ind. (Inf.)", "Co. I, 71-6 Ind. Cav.", or just "Co. I, 6th Ind. Cav." It depends on when he served.

(n) See note on last page of letter "S".

Company I of the Second Cavalry or Forty-first Regiment was mustered in at Indianapolis on December 9, 1861 (a). It is often referred to as "41st", "41-2 Ind. Cav.", or "2nd Ind. Cav.".

Apparently none of these men were in CO. G, 11TH IND. CAV. which was made up of Sullivan County men. "WAITING FOR THE MOMENT" is a book about this company. It was written by Louise Boothe of California who came here to do research. It is full of Sullivan County genealogy and history.
